

The issue concerning mobile number transfer should be passed in favor of the consumer asap. By stating in favor of the customer, I mean by requiring companies to allow consumers to keep there mobile phone numbers when they change service providers. By not mandating this it FORCES those whom have established clients, or freinds and family who know the number to keep the same carrier despite there wishes to switch.